

Create a Garden Scout Exploration

AT DENVER BOTANIC GARDENS

Saturday, September 26, 2020

- Choose a 9:15 a.m., 9:45 a.m., 10:15 a.m., 10:45 a.m., 11:15 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. start time.

This self-guided experience encourages scout groups and families to explore the basics of garden design as they learn how to plan for a successful garden! This program is designed to meet the needs of the Junior Girl Scout Badge requirements. All scouting and community groups are welcome to attend.

Scouts will:

- Explore garden design basics
- Identify perennial and annual plants
- Design, plant and decorate a miniature indoor garden oasis to take home with them
- Take home the materials to set up a seed experiment on their own

Price: $12 per scout; one adult per three scouts is admitted free of charge. Additional adults and non-participating siblings are $7 each.

Create a Garden - Scout Exploration

Denver Botanic Gardens does not supply activity badges.

DENVER BOTANIC GARDENS

10th & York Street

To learn more about scout programs at Denver Botanic Gardens visit our website at: botanicgardens.org/scouts.