Use chalk and decorate your driveway or sidewalk with Girl Scout pride.

Wear your uniform in a public place.

Call a friend to talk about Girl Scouts.

Text a friend about Girl Scouts.

Email 5 friends about Girl Scouts.

3 points each:

Design a poster for your favorite Girl Scouts camp and post it on social media.

Create your own Girl Scouts posters, hang 5 in your community, make sure to include the email inquiry@gscolorado.org on them for any questions!

Plan a Girl Scouts party for your non-Girl Scout friends, follow local social distancing guidelines.

Create a Girl Scouts display that you can share with local businesses.

Dress like a suffragette and design your own Get Out the Vote from Girl Scouts sign.

Create an informational on Girl Scouts' founder Juliette Gordon Low that can be shared with your local library using whatever format you'd like—web design, game, poster, display or theater .

5 points each:

Work with your parents to safely decorate your car in the theme of Girl Scouts, drive around your community with your decorated vehicle.

Write a letter to your local newspaper about Girl Scouting and why it benefits your community (grownups can help Daisies with writing).

Host a Girl Scouts-themed cupcake or cookie decorating challenge with your friends/family and share the results—the only limit is your creativity!

Wear your uniform during a school or friend Zoom meeting (in-person counts, too).

Host an informational Girl Scouts table at a community event that is open to the public and allowing tables.

Make a 10-second video about why you love Girl Scouts and get permission to post it on social media.

Complete these activities on your honor. When you're finished, purchase your patch online or order by emailing retail@gscolorado.org.

Earn this patch to fit with your renewal patch! Buy online or email retail@gscolorado.org.

10 points each:

Be the Girl Scout Guide for a digital series or recruitment event, email inquiry@gscolorado.org for opportunities.

Write a letter or draw a picture and send it to your local government official on the importance of Girl Scouting in your community and what projects you have completed.

Sign up for one of Girl Scouts of Colorado's online badge series or clubs and invite a friend who is not already a Girl Scout to join you.

Ask your teacher if you can share about your Girl Scout experience during class and invite other girls to join.

Think about why inviting friends to join Girl Scouts is so important to the Girl Scout mission and then design your own Girl Scouts ad.

Send hand-written invitations to at least 5 non-Girl Scout friends and invite them to a virtual or in-person meeting where you work together to complete or work toward a badge.

Wear your Girl Scout vest, sash, or tunic while participating in an outdoor event like hiking or camping and then share with friends or on social media why you love getting outside and how Girl Scouts helps.

Create your own version of "Hamilton" by making a Girl Scouts musical, create costumes, write lyrics, and design a set while performing a piece of Girl Scouts history or what you predict in the future for Girl Scouts!
